TREASURY DEPARTMENT

2005 Indicative Calendar – Goverment Securities

The Treasury is once again publishing an indicative calendar of the annual programme of issues of Government Securities. The calendar assists investors to gain a better insight into what investment opportunities will be available during the current year. It also helps other prospective issuers to plan the timing of their issues so as to avoid undue pressures on the local market.

Malta Government Stocks

Two Stock issues for a total of Lm55,000,000 will mature during 2005 (Vide table below)

24 May	Lm23,500,000	7.25% MGS 2005
1 August	Lm31,500,000	5.6% MGS 2005 (II)

It is currently projected that Malta Government Stock issues in 2005 will amount to around Lm155m. Of this amount, Lm55,000,000 represent conversion issues to refinance the two stocks that will mature during the year.

The 2005 issue programme will be spread over four issues that are planned to take place in March, May, July and October.

It is planned that an amount of between Lm30m and Lm50m will be offered in each issue depending on market conditions prevailing at the time of issue.

The maturity structure of the 2005 issues will be a mix of short/medium (4 –10 years) and long (11+ years) term issues.

The Treasury reserves the right to alter amounts, terms or issue dates indicated above in the event of exceptional circumstances or significant changes in market conditions.

Details of the terms and condition of each issue will be published in the Government Gazette prior to the actual date of each issue.

Treasury Bills

Auctions will be held with a combination of tenures.

Focus will be on the 3 month tenure which constitutes the money market benchmark, although weekly issues will include a mix of the 1 month, 6 month, 9 month and 12 month Treasury Bills. Shorter term Treasury Bills of 2 weeks or less may also be introduced during the year.

A calendar showing the individual weekly issues will be published in advance on a monthly basis. Depending on the prevailing circumstances, details as to the tenure will normally be announced two weeks in advance
