b) after considering any representations made by the firm in respect of the penalty and the payment date(s), the QAOC shall determine the quantum of the penalty and when it is to be paid and this determination shall be final, conclusive and not subject to appeal. The QAOC will set this out in writing in the letter sent thereby to the firm, proposing the imposition of the penalty;

c) if the firm accepts the penalty which is being proposed for imposition thereon by the QAOC and the relative terms thereof, written confirmation in this sense must be received by the QAOC within a period of two (2) calendar weeks from the date of service of the letter from the QAOC containing the proposal, in which case the proposed regulatory penalty and the relative terms shall become effective and binding on the Firm, so however that in such case no further disciplinary action shall be taken in respect of the Firm;

29. Any regulatory penalty which is imposed by the QAOC in terms of paragraph 28 above shall be deemed to be imposed directly by the Board.

30. If a firm does not agree that a breach of the provisions of this Directive has been committed, or does not notify its acceptance of the penalty as set out in paragraph 28(c) above, or does not fully adhere to the terms of the penalty imposed thereon by the QAOC, the QAOC shall inform the Board of the breach of the provisions of this Directive and recommend that disciplinary action should be taken in respect of the particular firm in terms of article 14 of the Act.

31. The application by the QAOC of paragraphs 28 and 29 above shall be subject to the prior issue by the Board of written guidelines detailing the manner in which Regulatory Penalties shall be imposed. Any deviations from these guidelines shall require the prior written approval of the Board.

Restrictions or conditions in respect of warrants and practicing certificates

32. Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Directive, the Board may issue an order imposing restrictions or conditions in respect of any warrant or practising certificate where, on the recommendation of the QAOC, it is of the view that all or any of the circumstances referred to in paragraph 25 above exist or may exist.

33. After the issue of an order imposing restrictions or conditions in terms of paragraph 32 above, within a period of not more than two (2) calendar weeks thereafter, the Board shall be obliged to grant the firm an opportunity to make oral or written representations thereto. Having considered any such representations the Board may deem fit to:

a) withdraw or vary the order with effect from such date as may be determined by the Board; or

b) retain the order in effect.

Enquiries in terms of Article 14 of the Act

34. Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Directive, the circumstances referred to in paragraph 25 above fall within the terms of paragraphs (i) to (iv) of sub-article (1) of article 14 of the Act. If the Board considers that any of the said circumstances exist or may exist in respect of any Firm, the Board may order an enquiry to be held, with the required degree of urgency, by the disciplinary committee appointed under sub-article (4) of article 7 of the Act and apart from any penalties contemplated elsewhere in this Directive, the penalties contemplated in the Act may be imposed on the particular Firm where it is found guilty of the particular acts or omissions in terms of law.

Dispensation

35. If it is impossible or impractical for any firm to comply with any of these provisions at any time, it shall be obliged to notify the QAOC in writing. Such notification must be received by the QAOC within a period of two (2) calendar weeks from the date from when the particular situation arose and it must specify the reasons therefore and the action which the firm proposes to take in order to return to a situation of full compliance with the provisions of this Directive.

36. If the QAOC determines that the firm is taking all practical steps required to resolve the problem and that the continued holding by the particular firm of any warrant or practising certificate would not be against the public interest, it may grant a dispensation from the requirement to comply with any or all provisions of this Directive for such period of time as the QAOC deems fit, so however that such period shall in no case exceed ninety (90) days from the date when the situation referred to in paragraph 35 above arose. If the QAOC is not satisfied with the steps being adopted or proposed to be adopted by the Firm to resolve the problem, it may recommend to the Board the taking of such action as it may deem fit in terms of the provisions of the Act, the Regulations and this Directive.

Continuing responsibility

37. If a firm no longer holds a warrant and/or practicing certificate, disciplinary action may still be takenin respect of the Firm and/or all or any of the partners thereof, for any failure to comply with the provisions of this Directive during the time in which it held any such warrant and/or practising certificate. A firm shall also be subject to subsequent disciplinary action if it fails to comply with any provision having a continuing effect even after the firm ceases to hold such warrant and/or practising certificate. Furthermore the Board's right to recover any unpaid fees or other amounts due from a firm under the provisions of this Directive shall continue to subsist even after the firm ceases to hold the particular warrant and/or practicing certificate.

The implementation of orders

38. Subject to any other provision of this Directive, an order made by the QAOC or the Board under this Directive shall enter into effect as soon as notice thereof is served on the particular firm or at such later date as the QAOC or the Board (as the case may be) may specify.

The serving of notice

39. A notice or any other document to be served under these regulations shall be delivered by hand, or sent by registered mail. In this respect the following shall apply:

a) If delivered by hand, the said notice or other document must be handed to a principal of the firm and service thereof shall be deemed to have been effected as soon as such document is handed to the said principal.

b) If sent by registered mail, the said notice or other document shall be addressed to a principal of the firm and be sent to the latest address given by the firm to the Board; service thereof shall be deemed to have been effected five business days after the date on which the particular notice or other document is posted.

Fees

40. Warrant holders in public practice and firms may be required to pay an annual regulatory fee for each calendar year commencing on or after the 1 March 2006.

41. The Board shall determine the quantum of the annual regulatory fee and the manner in which such fee is calculated shall be such as to cover in whole or in part the direct and indirect costs of the Quality Review process.

42. The QAOC is entitled at its discretion to order that a firm shall pay an additional fee to cover the costs of any visit which the QAOC considers to be required to ensure that the firm is operating to the required professional standards.

That the applicant has arrived at a point where he does not know whether his son is alive or not.

That this is being done both against the principal interests of the minor and of the applicant.....Omissis.....

.....Omissis.....

That although the applicant tried in various manners to persuade his wife to allow him to see his son alone, she always replied that she will allow him to do this if there is a specific order of the Court.

That although this letter is appointed for mediation it is necessary that this Court make a provisional order as regards how access to the boy is to be exercised and this in virtue of the faculty give to the Court in virtue of Article 4 subarticle 13 of Legal Notice number 397 of 2003. This in order that no time is wasted when the applicant can see his son.
