8. That it is humbly submitted that with the amendments that came in force on the 24th October 2006, there is no term in order that a cause be filed and in the worst hypothesis what can be interpreted is that the said law suit has to be instituted within twenty days from the date of the issue of the warrant.

That today is the twentieth day from the issuing of the Warrant of Prohibitory Injunction number 1689/06, issued on the 28th December 2006 and thus it is the humble submission of the applicants that the demand of the respondents for the issuing of the said Counter Warrant is abusive and intended to deviate this Honourable Court ...Omissis...

Thus the applicants are asking here for the issuing of a Warrant of Prohibitory Injuction.

That the applicant shall be prejudiced if the respondent is not withheld as shall be stated;

The parties have a shop in Swieqi, in Ktajjen Street, Number 62, with the name Famous Four Stationery. This shop belongs to the community of acquests as it was bought during marriage.

This shop is empty because the parties decided to close it. Infact it has been so closed for two years.

The applicant is living only from his salary as a musician with the National Orchestra and is living together with his son Christopher who is sixteen years old. His wife has no financial problems because she has an income of circa thirty thousand liri (Lm30,000) per annum.

The applicant asked her in order that they lease the shop mentioned and without any valid reason she refused to let him grant it on lease.

The applicant does not wish to leave his capital idle for nothing when he can easily grant it on lease and receive half the rent so that he supplements his wages which serves him exactly for living.

Thus he prays that he be authorized by this Honourable Court to grant on lease this shop even if his wife refuses to give her consent an d that he collects the rent and sends one half to his wife, so that thus, he can live better.
