in the same contract and private writings, amongst which that he leased to third parties immovables hypothecated in favour of the Bank without the consent of the plaintiff Bank it is pointed out that the Honourable First Court made a wrong evaluation of the proof.

Faults and deficiencies on the part of the respondent creditor Bank which the Honourable First Court did not consider.

The Second Grievance

20. That as regards the assertions made by the Honourable First Court regarding the personal guarantees made by the spouses Quattromani in that part of the judgement under the heading that the personal guarantees are invalid it is the humble opinion of the same appellant that the Honourable First Court was mistaken when it did not give weight to the fact that altough the personal guarantee in his regard is signed by him only on the last page of that same guarantee it did not have the initials of the same appellant Joseph Quattromani in all the pages of the guarantee as is usually done in any contract or private writing;

22. … omissis …

Thus, the interpellant whilst referring to the proof produced and that, which can be produced according to law and whilst reserving to make further submissions during the pleading of this appeal humbly pray that this Honourable Court, change, vary and reform the judgement appealed given by the First Hall C ivil Court, of the 15th July 2021, in the names Bank of Valletta plc vs Tower Manor Ltd, John Debono, Carmela Xerri and Maria Magdalena Quattromani by whilst confirming the judgement of the Honourable First Court as demanded in this application , with costs of both instances to be borne by the respondent plaintiff Bank.

That the interpellant has just been notified by this Honourable Court to deposit the global sum of € 1,260 as guarantee for the costs therein indicacted (Doc. Z);

That the interperllant is not in a positjion to pay these costs because the only revenue and income he has is that which he recieves from the Department of Social Security and nothing more as results from the annexed two documents marked (Doc. X and Doc. Y);

That infact it amply results mathematically from the same documents that actually the interpellant appellant recieves circa €59.88 weekly whilst the rest of the benefit is paid directly to his wife as maintenance for their minor son … omissis …

Thus the interpellant appellant respectfully prays this Honoyrable Court for the reason premised to exempt him from the obligation of the payment of the above indicated guarantee.
