As you well know, this business was entered into between you and the interpellant, where you promised that you contribute your share of costs incurred in this business, that is by reimbursing half of the investment and payments that the interpellant made in this business.

The interpellant invested and paid a considerable amount in this business, which business did not do well because of your negligence and your mis-management of the same business on your part.

Notwithstanding the various solicitations made by the interpellant for you to pay the amount due by you in terms of the agreement between you, and also promises that were made on your part, you remained in default.

The interpellant is soliciting you so that immediately, and in any case by not later than seven (7) days from the notification of this letter to you, you come forward for the liquidation of your share from this business, and consequently you pay the interpellant all the amounts that he issued for this business on your behalf.

In default of your complying with the requests in this letter and pay all that is due within the time given, the interpellant will have no alternative but to proceed against you according to law, including the issuance of the opportune warrants and without further notice.

This letter is being sent without prejudice to all the damages that the interpellant suffered because of your mismanagement in the business in question, which actions and rights are from now reserved.

So much so you may know how to proceed and regulate yourself
