By means of a decree delivered, by the Court of Appeal, Superior jurisdiction, on the 25th March, 2024, in the records of the Application number 188/2015 in the names Stephanie Attard (ID 461781M) vs Kenneth Attard (ID 501077M), the following publication was ordered for the purpose of service of Kenneth Attard in terms of section 187(3) et sequitur of Cap 12.

By means of Appeal Application number filed on the 7th December, 2023, in the names premised, the appellant Stephanie Attard felt aggrieved by the judgment of the Honourable Civil Court (Family Section) delivered on the 9th November, 2023, on the basis of two grounds of appeal, namely:

1. The first court failed to protect the paramount interests of the minor when delivering the schedule of access of the respondent in respect of the minor for the weekend; and

2. the same court was incorrect in assigning to the appellant the sum of five thousand euro only as payments that the respondent made to third parties.

Therefore, the appellant requests this Honourable Court that it reforms the judgment of the Civil Court (Family Section) of the 9th November, 2023, in the names premised in terms of the grounds of appeal raised in the application, and thus, it amends it by reforming the second modality in such a way that weekend access shall take place on Saturday between ten o'clock in the morning (10.00 a.m.) and noon (12.00 p.m.) under the supervision of the employees of the the Children's Care Directorate, whilst cancelling access on public holidays and special occasions, and assign to the appellant the sum of €23,293.74 as the share of the same appellant Stephanie Attard from a sum of €46,587.47 paid by the respondent to Charlene Attard as mother of the child that he had outside marriage, at a time when the community of acquests was still in force between the parties, and this whilst confirming the rest of the contents of the appealed judgment, with the costs of both instances to be borne by the respondent.

Notification: Kenneth Attard, 57, Arches Crt, Flt 1, B. Bontadini Street, Birkirkara
