was subject to an annual and perpetual ground rent of nine pounds sterling, fourteen shillings and three pence (£9.14,3) which ground rent is paid to Giuseppe Borg.

That this land was eventually developed by the applicants' ancestors, and amongst others is built on part of this land:

The house with official number 193, named Carmeline, in Naxxar Road, Birkirkara including its airspace and subsoil, free and unencumbered, with all its rights, enjoyments and appurtenances, which house has a superficial area of circa 150s.m. as shown on the Land Registry site plan here attached and marked as document letter C.

That when one calculates the proportion of the part of the said land on which the house above described is built it results that the groundrent which burdens it is equivalent to €5.97.

That the applicants wish to avail themselves of the right granted to them in terms of Article 1501 et sequitur of Chapter 16 of the Laws of Malta and redeem the said ground rent capitalised at the rate of 5% amounts to €119.40. Furthermore, the applicants by means of this schedule of deposit wish to deposit also the amount of €29.85 under the authority of the Court representing the amount paid for the ground rent of the last 5 years.

Thus the applicants in order to avail themselves of the right given to them in terms of Article 1501 et sequitur of Chapter 16 of the Laws of Malta, are redeeming the annual and perpetual groundrent burdening the house with official number 193 with the name Carmeline in Naxxar Road, Birkirkara, including its airspace and the subsoil, free and unencumbered, with all its rights, enjoyments and appurtenances, which house has a superficial area of circa 150 square meters.

Thus the applicants in order to exempt themselves from any responsibility and safeguard their rights are calling upon this Honourable Court and under the authority of the same they proceed to deposit the global sum of €149.25 price of redemption of this annual and perpetual ground rent burdening the property in Birkirkara above described, as well as the arrears of the payment of one year ground rent as indicated, so that this sum be freely withdrawn by the respondent, provided that it a receipt is made according to law.
