NOTE BY THE AUDITOR GENERAL

The National Audit Office has certified these Financial Statements. However, given that the comparative figures published in the Annual Financial Statements and the Finanial Report for 2023 have been revised, this Office was not yet in a position to check the revised figures for accuracy, due to the tight legislative frameworks.

Similar discrepancies were brought to light by this Office on the last page of the Financial Statements, as well as in the Report of the Auditor General for the year 2023.

Treasury affirmed that the discrepancies of the comparative figures in the 2024 Annual Financial Statements compared to the 2023 Financial Report were minimal and insignificant. Additionally, both the suspense and interdepartmental accounts were reconciled and their balances cleared off for 2024 before finalising the figures in the Financial Statements. The National Audit Office will verify this during the analysis of the 2024 Financial Report and the certification of the 2025 Financial Statements.

Consequently, it is important to view this certification within this context.

In this notice, the plaintiff is requesting the Court to order the defendants to state why they should not be condemned to pay the amount to be determined in accordance with the Media and Defamation Act (Cap. 579 of the Laws of Malta), as damages and compensation for defamation sustained by the plaintiff. The defamation allegedly occurred because of written statements or comments made on the social media platform Facebook, on the page of Lovin Malta on the 18th of October, 2024, under the article titled "New MRI Machine Unveiled in Gozo to Enhance Healthcare Services." These comments allegedly defamed the plaintiff by making false and defamatory accusations, including but not limited to claiming that the plaintiff received commissions in connection with the project. These comments by the defendants (Documents A and B), posted on the same article on the same date, are claimed to be libellous and defamatory against the plaintiff, with the intent to offend his honour and his personal and professional reputation, and to expose him to public ridicule and contempt. The plaintiff also requests legal costs and interest until the effective date of payment, as well as an injunction ordering the defendants for their oath.

If you fail to appear on the date and time mentioned below, the Court will decide according to the law.
