No. 1493

MINISTRY FOR FINANCE

Explanatory Notes[1]

Credit Institutions and Financial Institutions (Payment Accounts) Regulations, 2026

1. Introduction

The title of these regulations is the Credit Institutions and Financial Institutions (Payment Accounts) Regulations, 2026 (the "new regulations") and are issued both under the Banking Act (Cap. 371) and under the Financial Institutions Act (Cap. 376).

2. Summary and Background

Directive 2014/92/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 July 2014 on the comparability of fees related to payment accounts, payment account switching and access to payment accounts with basic features (the "Payment Accounts Directive") had already been transposed into local Subsidiary Legislation 371.18 and 376.08 (which bear the same title as these new Regulations). However, following an exercise undertaken by the Malta Financial Services Authority ("MFSA") to capture all conduct of business-related requirements applicable to banks under one easily accessible Conduct of Business Rulebook, the majority of the requirements stemming from the Payment Accounts Directive which are applicable to banks have consequently been removed from subsidiary legislation.

Hence, the new Regulations seek to repeal and replace current Subsidiary Legislation 371.18 and 376.08, transpose the Payment Accounts Directive as well as carve out Payment Accounts Directive-related provisions applicable to banks which have been transferred by the MFSA to its Conduct of Business Rulebook.

The new Regulations govern payment accounts held by consumers and apply to payment service providers ("PSPs") as defined in the regulations[2], (which include credit institutions [banks] and financial institutions) that offer payment accounts accessible to consumers. The new regulations focus on consumer protection, transparency, and access in relation to payment accounts. They address lack of transparency and comparability of fees, barriers to switching payment accounts, and limited or unequal access to basic payment accounts. The core purpose of the regulations is to improve consumer protection and enable consumers to make informed choices by improving fee transparency, facilitate switching between payment accounts, including cross-border, and ensure all consumers legally residing in Malta receive access to a basic payment account, regardless of their financial situation.

It is fundamental to note that most of the provisions found in the new regulations were already found in S.L. 371.18 and 376.08 aforementioned. As explained further below, there are only a few provisions (Parts V and VI) which are being newly introduced for the first time – the scope behind these provisions is to further strengthen consumer protection. These same provisions are applicable to banks through the MFSA's Conduct of Business Rulebook. Accordingly, the new Regulations align the regulatory requirements applicable to financial institutions with those applicable to banks, thereby placing both categories of institutions on an equivalent regulatory footing in relation to payment accounts.

[1] These Explanatory Notes are drawn up in accordance with and for the purpose of article 3(2)(c) of the Small Business Act (Chapter 512 of the Laws of Malta).

(b) electronic money institutions, being legal persons, that have been granted authorisation under Title II of Directive 2009/110/EC to issue electronic money, including, in accordance with Article 8 of the said Directive and with national law, branches thereof, where such branches are located within the European Union and their head offices are located outside the European Union, insofar as the payment services provided by those branches are linked to the issuance of electronic money;
(c) post office giro institutions which are entitled under national law to provide payment services;
(d) payment institutions;
(e) the European Central Bank and national central banks when not acting in their capacity as monetary authority or other public authorities;

Schedules:

4. Commentary

The regulations are split into a number of Parts, with some Parts applicable to all PSPs, whilst other parts apply to PSPs to the exclusion of banks. Accordingly, regulation 1(6) of the new regulations provides that "Parts I, II, VII, VIII and IX shall apply to payment service providers, whereas Parts III, IV, V and VI shall apply to payment service providers other than credit institutions, as defined herein.".

In terms of transparency and comparability of fees, the new regulations strengthen fee transparency through the requirement of a fee information document to be provided before opening an account, outlining key services and applicable fees, an annual statement of fees detailing fees actually charged during the year and the use of standardised terminology for common payment account services.

In terms of payment account switching services, the new regulations establish a formal framework for payment account switching, requiring payment service providers (excluding banks) to assist consumers who wish to avail themselves of a switching service. Under regulation 2(1), " "switching" or "switching service" means, upon a consumer's request, transferring from one payment service provider to another either the information about all or some standing orders for credit transfers, recurring direct debits and recurring incoming credit transfers executed on a payment account, or any positive payment account balance from one payment account to the other, or both, with or without closing the former payment account".

Switching services will be free of charge, or subject to limited cost, have to be carried out within defined timelines and the new regulations also establish clear allocation of responsibilities between the transferring and receiving PSPs. The purpose behind switching services is to remove practical barriers that discourage consumers from switching accounts, thereby enhancing competition and consumer choice.

As aforementioned, a number of new home-grown provisions, not previously included in subsidiary legislation 371.18 and 376.08 will also be applicable to PSPs (excluding banks). To note, however, that the same obligations will apply to banks through the MFSA Conduct of Business Rulebook, ensuring equivalent regulatory standards for both PSPs and banks. These are mainly the following:

(a) a number of new definitions have been introduced to define terms which were previously not defined, and some of which were not used in the text of S.L. 371.18 and S.L. 375.08, such as "Consumer Credit Directive", "dormant account", "internet banking" and "mobile banking".

Moreover, the definition of "consumer" has also been revised to include natural persons acting for the purposes of carrying out a business venture, trade or profession in his personal name. Furthermore, for the avoidance of any doubt, a proviso has been added to clarify that reference to 'consumer' shall also include a potential consumer.

(b) Disclosures, Overdraft Facilities and Other Requirements - regulations 17 to 26 (Part V of the new regulations) are applicable to payment service providers to the exclusion of banks:

New home-grown provisions have been included obliging payment service providers to publish certain disclosures on their website concerning payment account features, such as minimum balance and any applicable charges should the balance fall below such minimum; the treatment of dormant accounts; procedures around closing of accounts and other association fees and conditions of use; and the average number of days needed by the payment service provider to complete certain actions. The new requirements will also introduce the need for payment service providers to draw up a customer charter and publish it on their website.

Payment service providers will also be required to open or refuse to open payment accounts within a limited period of 10 business days from recorded receipt of a completed application.

Furthermore, provisions on overdrafts offered by payment service providers in connection with payment accounts are being introduced. Payment service providers (namely financial institutions) will now be required to provide clear information on overdrafts to consumers who apply for an overdraft facility while already holding a pre-existing payment account.

In addition, in case of erroneous transactions by the payment service provider in the context of a payment account, these shall be immediately reversed by the payment service provider at no additional cost to the impacted consumer.

Moreover, when a downtime service is planned on a mobile banking application or the website of the payment service provider, consumers shall be informed beforehand or, if unplanned, on the same day of occurrence, through social media and any other communication medium.

Also, a payment service provider may, upon the consumer's request, provide an overdraft facility in relation to a payment account, where applicable, depending on the nature of the payment account in question. However, access to, or use of, the payment account shall not be restricted by, or made conditional on, the purchase of such an overdraft facility.

(c) Dormant Accounts, Termination and Variation of Terms and Conditions - regulations 27 to 41 (Part VI of the new regulations) are applicable to payment service providers to the exclusion of banks:

Other new home-grown provisions are also being proposed to provide for instances whereby the consumer does not perform any activity on the payment account within 24 consecutive months. In such cases the payment account will become a dormant account and the payment service provider shall inform the client in writing that the payment account will become dormant within 30 days, unless action is taken by the consumer.

An obligation will be imposed on payment service providers to inform the consumer about any intention it may have to close or block a consumer's payment account where there are sufficient grounds to do so, together with a motivating reason unless prohibited by any other law, and what remedial action may be taken by the consumer in order to reverse such closure or blocking.

Furthermore, Payment Service Providers are prohibited from binding the consumer with certain clauses considered to be tantamount to unfair contract terms. However, terms and conditions may be varied if there is a variation clause. However, in cases where a variation to contractual terms has been proposed by the payment service provider and such variation is not empowered by a variation clause within the payment account contract, the consumer is free to refuse such variation.

Where the variation involves substantial changes to the existing terms and conditions, or where such variation is of a particularly complex nature, the payment service provider shall provide the consumer with a written summary of the key features of the revised terms and conditions.

5. Concluding sections

The new regulations shall come into force on the date of publication thereof, except for Parts V and VI which shall come into force two (2) months after the date of publication. Furthermore, the new regulations will be supplemented with a revised version of the MFSA's Conduct of Business Rulebook for Credit Institutions Offering Retail Products, published by the MFSA on its website.

These new regulations constitute the partial transposition of the Payment Accounts Directive. For the avoidance of any doubt, other provisions of the said Directive that have not been transposed in these regulations, have been duly transposed in other legislative instruments.

Should more information be required on the rights and obligations emanating from the new Regulations, the MFSA may be contacted on +356 21441155 or by lodging a query on the MFSA Website.

By means of a decree dated 28th July, 2026, delivered by the Court of Appeal (Superior jurisdiction) in the records of the application number 110/2023 in the names Tudor Mizzi u Maria Mizzi, ġiet ordnata s-segwenti pubblikazzjoni biex isservi ta' notifika fil-konfront tal-kumpanija appellata Tudor International Ltd a tenur tal-Artikolu 187(3) et sequitur tal-Kap. 12 tal-Liġijiet ta' Malta.

Permezz tar-Rikors tal-Appell numru 110/2023, ippreżentat fit-3 ta' Novembru, 2025, l-esponenti ħassew ruħhom aggravati b'din id-deċiżjoni u fiċ-ċirkostanzi talbu għall-awtorizzazzjoni sabiex ikunu jistgħu jinterponu appell mis-sentenza in parte;

Illi dan l-appell jikkonċerna s-sentenza in parte datata 9 ta' Mejju, 2025, li tirrigwarda l-eċċezzjonijiet bin-numru (2), tlieta (3) u erbgħa (4).

Illi l-aggravji tal-appellant huma s-segwenti:

1. Illi din hija kawża li trid talloka responsabbiltà għal ħsara li seħħet;

2. Illi s-sentenza kkwotata mill-Ewwel Qorti ma tifdi bl-ebda mod il-każ odjern stante illi f'dik is-sentenza kienet intalbet korrezzjoni daparti tar-rikorrenti li ġiet milqugħa, u kien abbażi ta' dik il-korrezzjoni li l-eċċezzjonijiet tad-Direttur tar-Reġistru Pubbliku ġew irtirati;

3. Illi l-Ewwel Qorti tikkonsidra fir-rigward ta' responsabbiltà tas-soċjetà attriċi li jistgħu jqajmu '… l-konvenuti kellhom jew għad għandhom drittijiet relattivi ma' ħsarat li ġarrbet il-proprjetà tagħhom, …' – diċitura meħuda minn paġna 13 tas-sentenza in parte tal-ewwel Onorabbli Qorti;

4. Illi s-soċjetà appellata tagħmel referenza għad-diċitura fir-rikors tagħha 'prevja kull dikjarazzjoni oħra li tista' tirriżulta meħtieġa' bħala bażi biex il-Qorti tagħti provvedimenti li jmorru oltre dak mitlub fit-talbiet.

Għaldaqstant, l-esponenti jitlob bir-rispett lil din l-Onorabbli Qorti tal-Appell jogħġobha tirrevoka s-sentenza in parte ta' nhar id-9 ta' Mejju, 2025, b'tali mod li l-eċċezzjonijiet bin-numru tnejn (2), tlieta (3) u erba' (4) jiġu milqugħa u għalhekk il-kawża tiġi ddikjarata improponibbli u nulla, salv provedimenti oħra li din l-Onorabbli Qorti tal-Appell jogħġobha timponi fil-ġudizzju għaqli u superjuri tagħha.

Bl-ispejjeż kontra l-appellati

Notifika: Tudor International Ltd, 75, Triq Annibale Preca, Ħal Lija

International Ltd vs Emanuel Mizzi and Maria Mizzi, the following publication was ordered for the purpose of effecting service on the respondent company Tudor International Ltd in terms of Article 187 (3) et sequitur of Cap. 12 of the Laws of Malta.

By means of Appeal application number 110/2023, filed on the 3rd November, 2025, the interpellants felt aggrieved by this decision and in the circumstances asked for authorisation so that they can file a partial appeal against the judgement;

Whereas this appeal concerns the partial judgement dated 9th May, 2025, which relates to pleas numbered (2), three (3) and four (4).

Whereas the appellants' grounds of appeal are the following:

1. Whereas this is a case which has to allocate responsibility for the damage which occurred;

2. Whereas the judgment quoted by the first court does not redeem in any way the present case since in that judgment a correction was requested on the part of the applicant which was upheld, and it was on the basis of that correction that the pleas of the Director Public Registry were withdrawn;

3. Whereas the Court of First Instance considers as regards the responsibility of the plaintiff company that they can raise '…the defendants had or still have rights relative to damages suffered in their property …' – wording taken from page 13 of the partial judgment of the Honourable Court of First Instance;

4. Whereas the respondent company refers to the wording in its application 'saving any other declaration which may prove necessary' as a basis for the Court to issue orders which go beyond that requested in the demands.

Therefore, the applicant respectfully requests that this Honourable Court of Appeal revokes the partial judgement of the 9th May, 2025, in such a manner that the pleas numbered two (2), three (3) and four (4) be upheld and thus the cause is declared inadmissible and null, saving other provisions that this Honourable Court of Appeal deems fit to impose in its wise and superior judgement.
