No. 465

EMERGENCY TREE PRESERVATION ORDER

Sections 47 and 48 (5) of the Development Planning Act, 1992

The Planning Authority believes that the trees to be found within the demarcated zone of the plan on page 3983, are of aesthetic, cultural, arboricultural and scientific value, such that they should be listed as 'scheduled Trees' in terms of section 48 (1) of the Development Planning Act, 1992.

The Authority also believes that the trees are in danger of being uprooted, destroyed, pruned, looped, or otherwise harmed.

The Authority is hereby issueing an Emergency Conservation Order in respect of the above trees in accordance with sections 47 and 48 (5) of the Development Planning Act.

(i) All the trees found in the demarcated zone show on the above mentioned plan are to be considered as scheduled trees.

(ii) All efforts are to be carried out to ensure the continued well being of the said trees.

(iii) The zone demarcated on the above mentioned site plan are to remain free from any development.

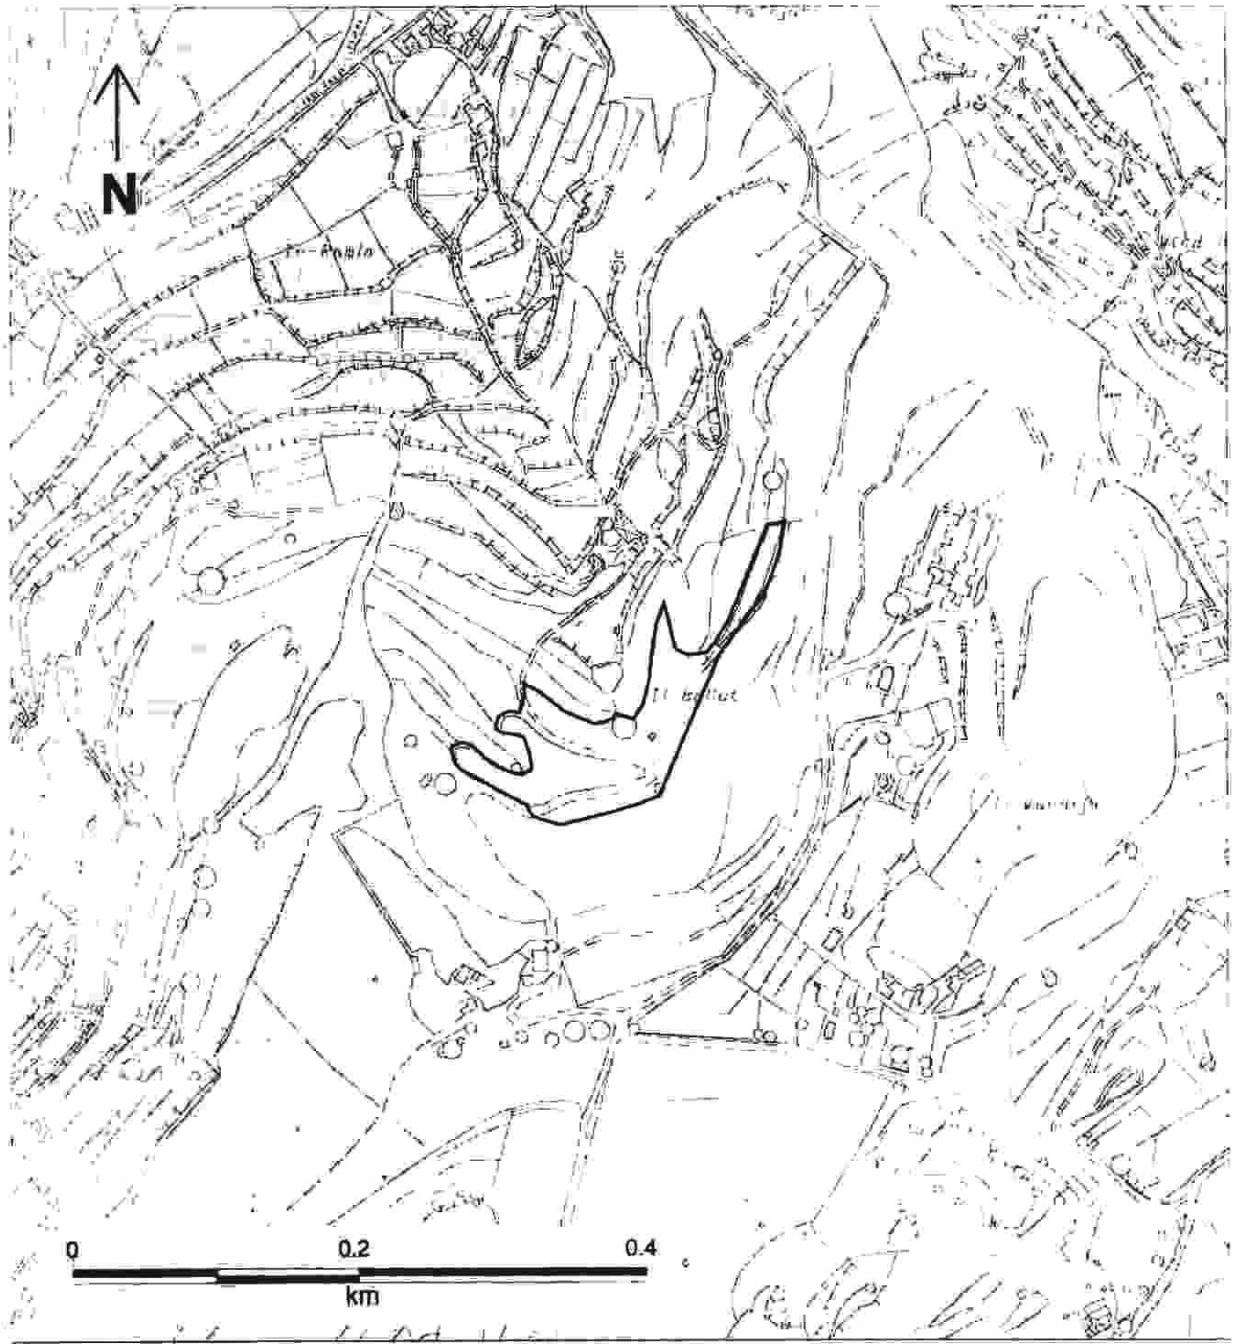

(iv) No material or noxious liquid shall be deposited and no burning shall be carried out within the indicated zone or in surrounding areas where such deposition of material or noxious liquid, or burning can be of damage or danger to the trees.

(v) Any interventions on or activities in the property which might be permissible must be approved in advance by the Planning Authority and the Environment Protection Department after a request is made in writing to them.

The order shall have effect for a period of six (6) months from the date of publication of this order.

If the trees are in any way damaged or destroyed in contravention of this order, the Authority will exercise its powers of enforcement, as set out in sections 46, 52, 53 and 55 of the Act. The act provides for severe penalties for contravention of control on Scheduled Trees.
