EMERGENCY CONSERVATION ORDER

Section 47 of the Development Planning Act, 1992

THE Planning Authority believes that the following property, namely:–

Salt Pans
at Marsaskala

(see site plan on the subsequent pages) are of cultural and traditional value such that it should be listed as Scheduled Property, in terms of section 46 of the Development Planning Act 1992.

The Authority also believes that the property is in danger of being damaged, destroyed or covered.

The Authority is hereby issuing an Emergency Conservation Order in respect of the above property in accordance with section 47 of the Development Planning Act.

1. All saltpans and any related features at Marsaskala are to be considered as a Grade 1 scheduled property as per Structure Plan Policy UCO 7 by virtue of their cultural, industrial and contextual value.

2. The destruction, infliction of damage, development, dumping or movement of material, removal of stones, or alterations within the area of the said saltpans is prohibited.

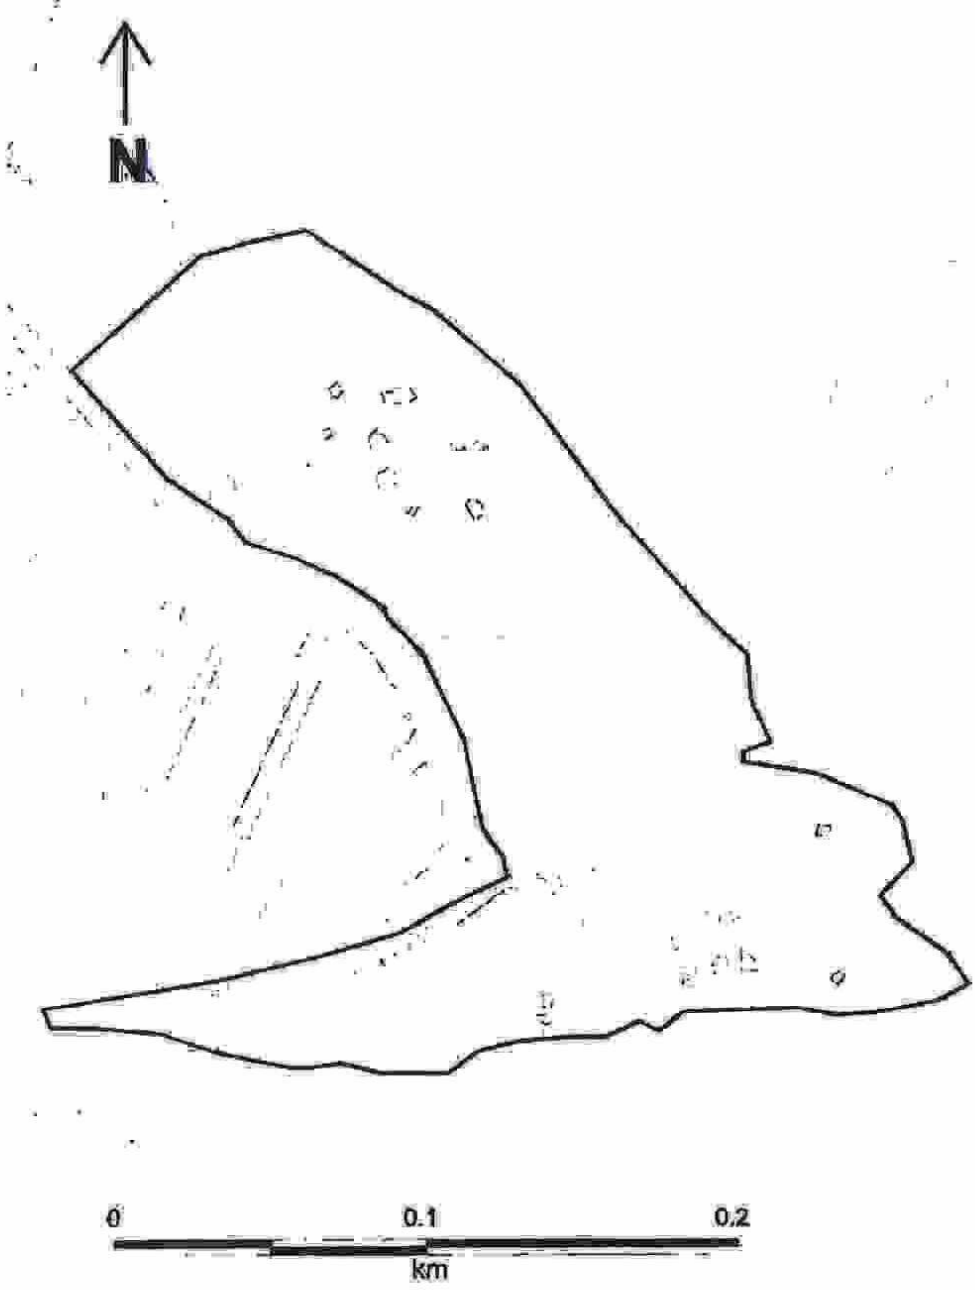

3. All uses, apart from the production of salt within the precinct of the above mentioned property are to be covered by a valid permit from the Planning Authority.

4. All developments, alterations or interventions on the above properties, which might be permissible, must be approved in advance by the Planning Authority in consultation with the Museums Department.

The Order shall have effect for a period of six (6) months from the publication of this Order.

If the property is damaged or altered in contravention of this Order the Authority will exercise its powers of enforcement, as set out in section 46, 52, 53 and 55 of the Act. The Act provides for severe penalties for contravention of control on Scheduled Property.
