Height will also be considered as an asset and shall be given preference by the Selection Board.

10. Trainees who reach a satisfactory level in all aspects of the initial four months course will be eligible for appointment as Police Constables on probation for two years. Appointments shall be made subject to existing vacancies as provided for in section 4. The last order of merit will be determined by the total marks obtained during the whole course of training. Those who reach distinction level may be given the opportunity to undertake further advanced training. Those who fail to reach the required standard will not be appointed Constables and will have their traineeship terminated. However, one other chance of a resit for the final examination/s might be given.

11. During the ensuing period of two year probation as Police Constables, the newly recruited constables will be required to continue with a practical training-probation course within the Police Force, in which:

(a) they will be assigned to those Sections of the force that the Commissioner of Police thinks fit, and

(b) they will be assessed on four-monthly assessments, in which the progress of every candidate will be evaluated.

Probationary Police Constables who repeatedly fail to reach the required standard in these four-monthly assessments may have their appointment terminated at the expiration of the period of probation.

12. The starting salary for the post of Police Constable is of Lm4,403 per annum rising up to a maximum of Lm5,879.

13. Applications, the only ones admissible, may be obtained from the Human Resources Branch, Police General Headquarters, Floriana, and submitted there personally by the applicants themselves, duly filled in, by not later than Friday, 7th April, 2006.

14. Persons calling to apply are to take with them their identity card, two recent passport size photographs and the original certificates of exams they have obtained a pass in and that are referred to in paragraph 2 and 9 above, together with certificates of other qualifications they possess.

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Hungarian Scholarships
(for Maltese Citizens only)

The Government of the Republic of Hungary is offering scholarships to Maltese citizens in various fields of arts and sciences during the granted period for undergraduate courses, post graduate courses, doctoral studies, partial doctoral studies, post doctoral studies, senior tutor and researcher and summer courses.

The tuition language is Hungarian, the scholarship holder must stay in Hungary for the whole period of the scholarship and the flight is not covered by the scholarship.

Applicants cannot be older than 30 years of age for scholarships for undergraduate studies, 40 years of age for scholarships for post graduate programmes, 35 years for doctoral scholarships, 45 years for post doctoral scholarships. There is no age limit for senior tutors, researchers and those participating in summer courses.

Documents to be submitted:

Every application must contain 2 copies of the documents (one of them must be original) listed below in the order given. All documents should be submitted either in Hungarian, English, French or German, except the application form of the Hungarian scholarship board, which must be filled in English or in Hungarian.

Application form of the Hungarian Scholarship board.

Certified copy of secondary school leaving certificate. (This requirement applies only for undergraduate and summer courses).

Certified copy of qualifications. Senior tutor or researcher must hold a Ph.D or equivalent degree and be at the level of at least an associate professor.

Curriculum vitae.

Precise and detailed work plan - maximum two pages. (This requirement does not apply for undergraduate and summer course applicants).

Letter of interest (only for undergraduate and summer course scholarship applicants).

Language certificate. Since teaching is delivered in Hungarian, applicants must certify knowledge of Hungarian sufficient to carry out the stated objectives of the submitted work plan. Exceptions may be made when the host institution formally agrees to accept an applicant tuition-free, regardless of the applicant's Hungarian language proficiency.

Two letters of recommendation (one to be issued by the applicant's home institution; doctoral applicants require advisor/mentor recommendation). This requirement does not apply for undergraduate and summer course applicants.

Certified copy of the student status by the applicant's home institution (only for undergraduate students).

Letter of invitation from the proposed host institution in Hungary (does not apply to summer course applicants). Applicants for partial doctoral studies (C/2) must have a letter of invitation issued by the Director of an accredited Doctoral school in Hungary. Applicants for full Doctoral studies have to forward to the Hungarian Scholarship Board (HSB) the decision of the respective Hungarian University's Doctoral Council on their admission to the Doctoral programme by 31st of August 2006 at the latest.

List of publications (for Doctoral, post Doctoral or senior tutorial/research scholarship applicants only).

Medical certificate verifying fitness.

Applicants for a scholarship in the area of graphic and fine arts as well as music have to include the following additional details and documents:

1. For painters, graphic artists and sculptors: photographs of 3 pieces of their work, rough drafts (with date of creation).

2. For musicians: high quality tape recordings of 3 different styles of music if the music involves interpreters and directors. Composers have to submit their scores.

Applicants for graphic and fine arts as well as music may be required to take an additional exam in the relevant Hungarian host institution before being awarded the scholarship.

Applicants who wish to study at the Liszt Academy of Music must also forward their applications directly to the Academy by the 1st March at the latest each year, because everybody (including those who already have a letter of invitation) must take an entrance exam. Candidates should not forget to indicate on these applications that they are simultaneously applying for a bilateral scholarship at the Hungarian Scholarship Board.
