By means of a decree handed down by the Court of Magistrates (Malta) on the 29th November 2011, in the records of the judicial letter number 4791/10, in the names Central Landmark Development Limited vs Nazzareno sive Reno Zarb et, the Court ordered the following publication for the purpose of effecting service on the respondent, in terms of Article 187(3) of Cap. 12.

In the first instance, the applicant company refutes as extremely unfounded your allegation that it has constituted itself a certain, true and liquid debtor in your respect in the amount of €3,726.99 equivalent to Lm1,600 by means of a deed of the 7th December 2006 in the acts of Notary Doctor Remigio Zammit Pace which deed does not constitute an executive title in your favour and it cannot be rendered executable by means of your judicial letter of the 4th November 2010;

In the second instance and without prejudice to all of the above, the applicant company states that it has already paid for all of its pending dues for licences and/or services used in the immovable property which has been transferred directly to the relative corporations according to the terms and conditions as set out in the same deed and that therefore the applicant company has no further obligation towards you.

Therefore, whilst the applicant company solicits you not to further your frivolous and vexations claims in its regard, it reserves all of its right for any action for damages and expenses in your regard which may result in the event that you proceed further against it.

So much for your better guidance.
